WGS 334H1F: Transnational Feminism and Digital Media

This course examines the role of digital media in shaping contemporary transnational feminist politics and how digital media is in turn shaped by transnational feminism. Looking at contemporary feminist cultural practices, social movements and current events in the landscape of digital media, the course considers how new practices of feminist politics coincide with new technologies of governance and communication in a digital age. Course topics may include: social media and hashtag politics, digital media in transnational feminist activism, gender-based violence online, gender in gaming, crowd-sourcing and the future of feminist NGOs, digital storytelling, and digital feminism as “the 4th wave”.
